

Prairie-River Library District Director $60,000+ DOE. 40 hours per week. Benefits: vacation, sick leave, medical insurance, PERSI. The Prairie River Library District consists of eight small rural branches located generally along the Clearwater River between Lapwai and Kooskia, and on the beautiful Camas Prairie, with the Headquarters branch in Lapwai, ID. PRLD is an independent taxing district and a member of the Valnet consortium, with nearly 50 public and school libraries in north-central Idaho and southeast Washington.

The Director manages the administrative and financial activities of the district, working with a dedicated team of about 20 staff members, and an informed, involved elected Board of Directors who share a commitment to the quality of literacy and library programs and services that impact residents of our area, as well as participates in the operation of the consortium. MLS degree is preferred, but equivalent education and experience will be considered.
